APPLICATION UNDER THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 1991

Your application seeks access to:

“A current index of all briefs held on the Objective document management system (a) Received by the Treasurer’s Office; (b) Requested by the Treasurer’s Office; (c) Generated by the Treasurer’s Office; and (d) Returned to the Department after consideration by the Treasurer or Treasurer’s Office staff, between 17 July 2019 and 13 November 2019."

Determination under review

The legislative prescribed timeframe to determine this application has expired and is now deemed to have refused you access to all documents relevant to your application.

A total of 1 document was identified as answering the terms of your application and I have determined as follows:

I grant you access in part to the document. However, certain information has been redacted relating to any personal information on first home owners grant, payroll tax objections and stamp duty objections, pursuant to clause 12(1) of the FOI Act.

Information on briefings which have been provided to myself for use in Cabinet or a Cabinet Committee meeting, or containing Cabinet decisions have been redacted, pursuant to clause 1 of the FOI Act.

Businesses who have applied for Government grants and/or funding have also been removed, pursuant to clause 7(1)(c) of the FOI Act.
Personal information relating to sensitive matters relating to payments and settlement issues, involving members of the general public have been redacted pursuant to clause 6(1).

There are also a number of confidential briefings relating to SafeWork SA investigations which would constitute an offence if disclosed. This information has been redacted pursuant to clause 12(1).

There is also a briefing which relates to a decision of the Supreme Court of South Australia. This information has been redacted pursuant to clause 11(b).

Exemptions

Clause 1 – Cabinet Documents

(1) A document is an exempt document—
(a) if it is a document that has been specifically prepared for submission to Cabinet (whether or not it has been so submitted); or
(b) if it is a preliminary draft of a document referred to in paragraph (a); or
(c) if it is a document that is a copy of or part of, or contains an extract from, a document referred to in paragraph (a) or (b).

Clause 4 – Law enforcement and public safety

(2) A document is an exempt document if it contains matter the disclosure of which—

(a) could reasonably be expected—
(ii) to enable the existence or identity of any confidential source of information, in relation to the enforcement or administration of the law, to be ascertained; or
(iv) to prejudice the maintenance or enforcement of any lawful method or procedure for protecting public safety; or
(vi) to prejudice any system or procedure for the protection of persons or property; and

(a) would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest.

Clause 6 – Documents affecting personal affairs

(1) A document is an exempt document if it contains matter the disclosure of which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of information concerning the personal affairs of any person.
Clause 7 – Documents affecting business affairs concerning

(1) A document is an exempt document—
   (b) if it contains matter—
       (i) consisting of information (other than trade secrets) that has a commercial value to any agency or any other person; and
       (ii) the disclosure of which—
           (A) could reasonably be expected to have an adverse effect on those affairs or to prejudice the future supply of such information to the Government or to an agency; and
           (B) would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest; or
   (c) if it contains matter—
       (i) consisting of information (other than trade secrets or information referred to in paragraph (b)) concerning the business, professional, commercial or financial affairs of any agency or any other person; and
       (ii) the disclosure of which—
           (A) could reasonably be expected to have an adverse effect on those affairs or to prejudice the future supply of such information to the Government or to an agency; and
           (B) would, on balance, be contrary to the public interest.

Clause 11 – Judicial Functions

A document is an exempt document if it contains matters—

(b) prepared for the purposes of proceedings (including any transcript of the proceedings) that are being heard or are to be heard before a court or tribunal.

Clause 12 – Secrecy Provisions

(1) A document is an exempt document if it contains matter the disclosure of which would constitute an offence against an Act.

Clause 77 of the TAA – Prohibition of certain disclosures by tax officers

A person who is or has been a tax officer must not disclose any information obtained under or in relation to the administration or enforcement of a taxation law, except as permitted by this Part.

Please note, in compliance with Premier and Cabinet Circular PC045 - Disclosure Logs for Non-Personal Information Released through Freedom of Information (PC045), the Department of Treasury and Finance is now required to publish a log of all non-personal information released under the Freedom of Information Act 1991.

In accordance with this Circular, any non-personal information determined for release as part of this application, may be published on the DTF website. A copy of PC045 can be found at the following address: https://dpc.sa.gov.au/resources-and-publications/premier-and-cabinet-circulars. Please visit the website for further information.
As I am determining this application as Principal Officer, Section 29(6) of the Act does not provide for an internal review. If you are dissatisfied with my determination you are entitled to exercise your rights of external review with the Ombudsman.

Alternatively, you can apply to the South Australian Civil and Administrative Tribunal. If you wish to seek a review, Section 39(3) of the Act states you must do so within 30 calendar days of receiving the determination.

If you require any further information, please contact Vicky Cathro on (08) 8226 9789.

Yours sincerely

Hon Rob Lucas MLC
Principal Officer
