

- November 1965 A referendum was held on the establishment of a State lottery.
- November 1966 State Parliament passed the Bill and Royal Assent was given to establish the Lotteries Commission of South Australia.
- May 1967 The first 50 cent traditional lottery went on sale on 15 May 1967.
- May 1967 South Australia's first lottery was drawn on 29 May 1967 by the Premier, the Honourable Frank Walsh.
- July 1967 The $1 traditional lottery was launched.
- August 1968 The $2 traditional lottery was launched.
- June 1969 The $3 traditional lottery was launched, followed by special $4, $5, $10 and $20 traditional lotteries.
- March 1973 Saturday X Lotto, 6 from 32, was introduced at 25 cents per entry.
- May 1977 South Australia's first $1 million traditional lottery was held.
- December 1978 SA Lotteries pioneered the Australian launch of instant games.
- February 1981 South Australia, Victoria and Western Australia (subsequently Queensland and New South Wales) formed the Australian Lotto bloc to enable a Saturday X Lotto Division One prize pool of more than $1 million.
- October 1983 The Australian Lotto Bloc introduced Wednesday X Lotto, 6 from 39, at 50 cents per entry.
- January 1984 Based on the weekly drawing of a five-digit number, The 7 Day Sweep was introduced at $1 per entry then was followed by $2 and $4 Sweeps.
- November 1984 A computerised online lottery system commenced.
- July 1985 Saturday X Lotto changed to 6 from 45.
- January 1986 The 7 Day Sweep was discontinued.
- February 1986 The Australian Lotto Bloc introduced Super 66 as an add-on game to Saturday X Lotto, at $1 per entry.

- October 1986 Lucky Dates was introduced at 50 cents per entry, whereby players chose two dates from 366 days of the year.
- January 1989 The Australian Soccer Pools Bloc was formed, and SA Lotteries assumed responsibility for administering The Pools game.
- May 1989 The Pools, 6 from 38, was introduced by the Australian Soccer Pools Bloc at 50 cents per entry.
- January 1990 Lucky Dates was discontinued.
- March 1990 Club Keno was introduced with draws held every five minutes.
- April 1990 Traditional lotteries were discontinued.
- October 1990 Monday X Lotto, 6 from 45, was introduced in South Australia at 25 cents per entry.
- February 1991 Saturday X Lotto increased from 25 cents to 30 cents per entry.
- October 1992 Wednesday X Lotto was discontinued.
- October 1992 The Australian Lotto Bloc introduced Thursday Lotto, 6 from 45, at 50 cents per entry.
- December 1992 South Australia, Victoria, Western Australia, Queensland and New South Wales formed the National Lotto Bloc.
- February 1994 The National Lotto Bloc introduced Oz Lotto, 6 from 45, with a Division One prize of $1 million, five prize divisions and a $1 cost per entry.
- March 1994 Easisplay Club was introduced.
- November 1995 Saturday X Lotto double draw was introduced, with the cost per entry increasing from 30 cents to 40 cents.
- May 1996 Thursday Lotto was discontinued.
- May 1996 The Powerball Bloc (South Australia, Victoria, Western Australia, Queensland and New South Wales) was formed and launched Powerball, 5 from 45 in the first barrel and 1 from 45 in the Powerball barrel. With a Division One prize of $2 million and seven prize divisions, the cost per entry was 55 cents.
- February 1997 Saturday X Lotto reverted to a single draw.

- November 1997 Keno went on sale in the ACT via ACTTAB.
- February 1998 Keno prize structure was altered, guaranteeing a Spot 10 prize of $1 million.
- June 1999 A new online lottery system commenced.
- June 1999 The frequency of Keno draws changed to every 3.5 minutes.
- June 1999 Monday X Lotto was renamed SA Lotto.
- May 2000 Extended Play Instant Scratchies game launched.
- February 2001 Keno prize structure was altered to include a jackpot amount in addition to the $1 million guaranteed Spot 10 prize.
- December 2002 Saturday X Lotto guaranteed a Division One prize of $3 million and the cost per entry increased from 40 cents to 45 cents.
- November 2003 A Wednesday night draw was added to SA Lotto and the Division One prize increased to $400,000. The cost per entry increased from 25 cents to 30 cents.
- January 2005 Powerball guaranteed a Division One prize of $3 million and the cost per entry increased from 50 cents to 55 cents.
- July 2005 South Australia, New South Wales and Western Australia formed the Monday and Wednesday Lotto Bloc.
- October 2005 Oz Lotto was revised to 7 from 45, with seven prize divisions.
- March 2006 Saturday X Lotto guaranteed a Division One prize of $4 million and the cost per entry increased from 45 cents to 50 cents.
- April 2006 SA Lotto was discontinued.
- April 2006 Monday and Wednesday X Lotto, 6 from 45, was introduced with a Division One prize of $1 million every Monday and $750,000 every Wednesday, five prize divisions and a cost per entry of 30 cents.
- October 2006 An SMS results service launched.

- April 2007 Legislation passed to increase the legal age to play lottery games in South Australia from 16 to 18 years. The penalty for selling to, or buying a ticket or claiming a prize on behalf of, a person aged less than 18 years increased from $500 to $5,000.
- June 2007 LuckySA Lottery, based on a computerised traditional lottery, was introduced with a $500,000 top prize.
- June 2007 A $10 Instant Scratchies ticket launched with a prize pool of $3 million.
- August 2007 Powerball increased from 55 cents to 60 cents per entry.
- December 2007 LuckySA Lottery was drawn.
- March 2008 Keno went on sale via selected SATAB outlets.
- June 2008 SMS results service was expanded with 'Dividend on Demand', enabling players to receive prize dividends direct to their mobile phones.
- October 2008 Saturday X Lotto increased from 50 cents to 55 cents per entry.
- October 2008 Victoria joined the Monday and Wednesday Lotto Bloc. The Monday and Wednesday X Lotto Division One prize was a guaranteed $1 million and the cost per entry increased from 30 cents to 40 cents.
- June 2009 South Australia's largest lottery prize of $53.3 million was won with an Oz Lotto ticket.
- July 2009 An annuity-style Instant Scratchies ticket was launched, with the chance to win a top prize of $75,000 every year for ten years.
- October 2009 SA Lotteries was one of only two lottery operators in the world to achieve the highest level (4) of accreditation under the World Lotteries Association (WLA) Responsible Gambling Framework.
- December 2009 A free iPhone App launched.
- February 2010 Powerball increased from 60 cents to 65 cents per entry.
- May 2010 The online lottery system was replaced.
- October 2010 Instant Scratchies tickets, featuring a barcode which could be read by self-service ticket checkers launched.

- January 2011 Saturday X Lotto was revised with a sixth prize division and increased from 55 cents to 60 cents per entry.
- June 2011 Oz Lotto increased from $1 to $1.10 per entry.
- June 2011 Powerball increased from 65 cents to 75 cents per entry.
- February 2012 Monday and Wednesday X Lotto was revised with a sixth prize division and increased from 40 cents to 50 cents per entry. The Division One prize was a guaranteed $1 million or an equal share of $2 million if there were more than two Division One winners.
- September 2012 An online play facility was launched through an alliance with Oz Lotteries.
- December 2012 Tatts Lotteries SA Pty Ltd was appointed as the Master Agent to operate SA Lotteries' products and brands for a 40-year term.
- March 2013 Powerball changed to 6 from 40 in the first barrel and 1 from 20 in the Powerball barrel. An eighth prize division was added and the cost per entry was increased from 75 cents to 85 cents.
- July 2014 Saturday Lotto price increased from 60 cents to 65 cents per game.
- August 2015 Set for Life was introduced with a 1st Prize of $20,000 every month for 20 years. Set for Life is a unique eight from 37 numbers game with draws conducted every day of the year. The first draw was held on Friday 7 August 2015.
- June 2018 The Pools was discontinued after the draw on 25 June 2018.